Topic: People who Help Us

Essential Question: Can you help us?

Dear Teacher by Amy Husband

Face your first day jitters with the perfect laugh-out-loud back to school comedy. Can Michael's imagination save him from the first day of school?

Dear Teacher is a hilarious collection of letters from Michael to his new teacher explaining why he can't go to class. From traveling to the pyramids of Egypt to getting attacked by pirates and going to the moon in a rocket ship, each letter is increasingly outlandish and covered with Michael's incredibly funny sketches from his many adventures.

When Michael's teacher writes back telling him how sorry she is he'll miss all of the exciting school activities planned for the year, Michael realizes all the fun he'd really miss out on.

Zog and the flying doctors by Julia Donaldson

Princess Pearl, Sir Gadabout and, of course, their trusty 'air ambulance', Zog the dragon, in this fabulously original sequel to the bestselling ZOG. There's much to do, as they fly around tending a sunburnt mermaid, a distressed unicorn and a sneezy lion. But should princesses really be doctors? Pearl's uncle, the King, doesn't think so - until he himself falls ill, and only Pearl knows how to cure him.

Tiger's toothbrush by Richard Dungworth

Follow a young girl as she and her teddy go on a wonderfully imaginative journey to the magical Land of Nod, where poor Tiger can't go to bed as he needs to find a toothbrush. Can they help him so Tiger can go to sleep?

A Piece of Cake by Jill Murphy

In this funny and brilliantly observed story from Jill Murphy's bestselling Large series, Mrs Large is feeling a tiny bit wibbly-wobbly – so decides to put the whole family on a diet! Biscuits and crisps are out, healthy meals and jogs are in. But for hungry elephants, dieting is definitely not a piece of cake... Just what will happen when Granny sends them something delicious in the post?

The Jolly Postman and Other Peoples Letters by Janet and Allan Ahlberg

Once upon a bicycle, so they say

The Jolly Postman came one day . . .

Join the Jolly Postman on his rounds as he delivers cards and letters to various fairy-tale characters. He has a letter of apology for the three bears from Goldilocks, a postcard from Jack for the giant, a solicitor's letter on behalf of Little Red Riding-Hood for the wolf who ate grandma, and more! This classic and innovative story includes six envelopes with pull-out letters and cards.

A day with the animal builders by Sharon Rentta

The penguins' dream home is going to be amazing, with an ice rink, a helter-skelter and a swimming pool on the roof. However, the animal builders' apprentice, Donkey, is turning out to be a bit of a disaster. His bricklaying is a mess; he's a positive danger behind the wheel of a dumper truck, and his plumbing is a catastrophe. But who saves the day when a runaway bulldozer threatens to flatten all the builders' hard work? Donkey does! So that's what Donkey is good at: being super-strong!

Mog and the V.E.T. by Judith Kerr

The Shopping Basket by John Burningham

Steven is sent out for groceries on to the mean street of the city with only a shopping basket for protection.

There are several shady characters about who are offering to lighten the load of the basket by helping themselves to his provisions! Steven's having none of it and with the help of some of the city's less attractive sights he outsmarts all of them and makes it home in time for tea. With the pictures telling as much of the story as the text, children and adults alike will appreciate the humour and observations from this well known children's author.

The Rhyming Rabbit by Julia Donaldson and Lydia Monks

The Rhyming Rabbit loves to make up entertaining poems, inspired by everything he sees, but the other rabbits don't appreciate his talent for rhyme. Sad and lonely, the Rhyming Rabbit sets off one starry night all on his own – will he ever find someone to share his poems with? With brilliant rhyming verse, bright and distinctive illustrations and glitter on every page, this story is a delight to read aloud.
